

Ensuring HUD Compliance

Providing permanent housing for homeless individuals and families with special needs is the core component of the Shelter Plus Care and Supportive Housing Program. This training will provide participants a thorough understanding of the eligibility criteria and documentation that is required by HUD.

This is your opportunity to ensure that your program is in compliance with HUD regulations.

Opening the Doors for Those in Need

This training will provide specifics on the criteria established for participants to meet the eligibility requirements for entrance into both the Supportive Housing Program (SHP) and Shelter Plus Care program, as well as required ongoing documentation.

In addition to the training opportunity, participants will be provided with formatted sample forms and reference materials.

This training is geared toward those agencies who have currently operating programs as well as those agencies that are considering applying for HUD McKinney-Vento funding. Interactive exercises will be included, with ample time scheduled to address specific questions from the audience. Participants will garner the skills needed and documentation required to assure a successful monitoring visit by HUD.
