

December 21st National Homeless Persons' Remembrance Day

Did you know that December 21st is National Homeless Persons' Remembrance Day? It is observed on this day because it is the first day of winter. It was created in part to garner a public forum for homelessness.

Please join the Mercer Alliance to End Homelessness for our annual ecumenical memorial service on this day.

WHY: National Homeless Persons' Remembrance Day

WHEN: Thursday, December 21st

WHERE: Turning Point United Methodist Church
15 South Broad Street, Trenton, NJ 08608

TIME: 10:00 a.m.

All are welcome to attend and remember those who were lost this year.

We work tirelessly to prove that we can, we must, we will end homelessness.
